• Long-time Board member Phyllis Clemson has officially resigned from the Board after 24 years of service. The Library staff and the Board are very grateful for Ms. Clemson’s dedication and many contributions to the Library during her tenure as a Trustee. Ms. Clemson’s vacated position will need to be filled, as well as the Superintendent’s Representative position.

• Congratulations were extended to Library Secretary Jill Hackett, on becoming an American Citizen.

• President Donahue noted the great increase in the Summer Program participation this year, and commended the staff on planning and running such a successful program. Ms. Donahue expressed her appreciation for the Library staff members who are going above & beyond to complete significant projects.

• She reported that the Library Foundation is currently working on creating a website, logo, and press kit.

• Ms. Donahue inquired what Catchafire.org was, and Ms. Begraft explained that Catchafire matches professionals who are willing to volunteer their time with non-profit organizations, particularly libraries.

Director’s Report

In addition to her written report:

- Ms. Begraft reported that new patron registration is up, due to the summer ‘surge’, patrons needing new library cards, and the collection of outstanding fines.
- The new Long Hill Library cards were shown to the Board. The redesigned cards feature a photo of an owl from the Raptor Trust.
- Ms. Begraft noted that patrons are asking for ‘eclipse glasses’, to be used during the upcoming solar eclipse. Unfortunately, Long Hill Library received a very limited quantity of the glasses and therefore cannot distribute them widely.
- The Director indicated that the ‘shelf-talker’ labels are being replaced. These labels are usually located on the Fiction bookshelves, and they provide patrons with author recommendations. The staff is also planning to replace the current end-cap signage with labeling that is more user-friendly. They have been investigating the types of signage that nearby libraries are using.
- The Library has received a $2,000 donation from Rene Phelan’s estate. Ms. Begraft reported that suggestions are being taken on how best to remember Ms. Phelan with this bequest. Current suggestions include a drive-up book drop, and a library room named in her honor.
- The staff is considering ways to redesign the “shush” room, to increase its functionality for patrons.
