Consent Agenda
Director’s Report
In addition to her written report:

- Ms. Begraft, in response to a question from Ms. Donahue, explained that Ms. Luderitz is looking into a free program offered by Lincoln Center, called “Lincoln Center Live”. The program allows libraries to stream programs and performances direct from Lincoln Center.
- WOWBRARY is an online newsletter which highlights “new” items available at the Library. The cost for the newsletter is $500 annually, with an option to cancel the service after 2 newsletters. The newsletter is currently being tested among the staff, and ways to alert the public about the service are being discussed.
- Ms. Begraft reported that performance evaluations for Part-Time staff are almost complete, and she is also acquiring feedback from the staff during the process. Evaluations for the Full-Time staff are projected to be complete by the end of March.
- Director Begraft noted how very proud she was of Children’s Librarian, Meghan Darling, and Ms. Darling’s accomplishments during her trip to Atlanta for the ALA

Approved 3/15/17
MidWinter Conference in January. Ms. Darling’s dedication and enthusiasm are greatly appreciated.

- Ms. Begraft has contacted a recommended roofer to assess the Library’s ongoing roof leakage problem.
- Regarding the Energy Audit, Ms. Begraft reported that the new thermostats that the Library requested have been approved. Final approval of the Library’s Energy Audit will be delayed while the Township is conducting its Energy Audit in March.
- Contractor Frank Dill will be coming to the Library to provide an estimate for “doors” to be placed by the Circulation Desk. The doors would provide a needed separation between the public and staff-only areas.
- Ms. Begraft indicated that Collection development continues, with materials being weeded and moved. One goal is to make the Library as easy for patrons to use as possible, particularly for the children and caregivers.
- Ms. Luderitz is having an electrician look into locating a new electrical outlet by the end of the Adult section, where a computer catalog could be placed.
- It was noted that the MAIN meeting on February 27, 2017 will be held at the Long Hill Township Library.
- Ms. Donahue requested an explanation of “MCL membership cards”. Director Begraft explained that the cards allow patrons who work in a county to have access to libraries in that county. MAIN will be voting on a “paid” library card system at the February meeting. The card would cost $250 annually.
